

A vintage photograph of a sunset over the ocean. The sky is filled with large, billowing clouds that are illuminated from below by the setting sun, creating a warm, golden glow. A single seagull is captured in flight, its wings spread, against the bright sky. The ocean in the foreground is dark and textured with small waves. The overall tone is nostalgic and serene.

PROCTORIAN

*Proctor High School
Proctor, Vermont*

How can we be sure of anything
the tide changes.
The wind that made the grain wave gently yesterday
blows down the trees tomorrow.
And the sea sends sailors crashing on the rocks,
as easily as it guides them safely home.
I love the sea
but it doesn't make me less afraid of it.

I call him Man,
the endless runner
in the struggle
to survive the years,
the toil, the joys, the pain,
Still bearing the faith
that weaves its web on a single thread to eternity.

I call him Healer,
the balm in times
when blackness and
all its bitterness beyond
A soul that yet glows
as an ember whipped by a wind
in its ecstasy for living.

I call him Brother,
a man in peace who reaches out from blackness into light
Over the line, jaggedly drawn from fear, distrust, and age,
to lives beyond his narrow stretch of time.
Trust us, Brother, for we touch, grasp, and stretch together

beyond all time.

Reverend Wright ...

I've been going a long time now;
along the way I've learned some things ...

You have to make the good times
yourself.
Take the little times and make them into big times ...

Think of all the men who never knew the answers.
Think of all of those who never even cared.
Still there are those who ask why,
who want to know; who dare to try.

... but I'm just a man who needs and wants mostly things he'll never have,
looking for that thing that's hardest to find.

In Memory Of John Curtis

The worth of a friend can never be really measured. John Curtis was indeed a friend to the students and administration of Proctor High School. He was a strong link between the community and school, a concerned citizen, and an understanding father.

ACTIVITIES

Sutherland

The prime purpose of the Sutherland is to contain interesting news. This year the staff has attempted to keep the paper going. This can be difficult at times, but the staff must be commended on their fine efforts. This year we all have warmly welcomed the up-to-date news in addition to the short stories and poems of the students. This has added a great deal of appeal to the paper. We all look forward to even more improvement in the upcoming years.

National Honor Society

This year, the Redfield Proctor Chapter of the National Honor Society has overcome tradition. In the past it has been merely an honor bestowed upon the elite of the upper-classmen. This year the Society has decided to take prompt action to insure that a comprehensive evaluation of the union school proposal is made. To do this, the Society has decided to visit existing union schools and to draw parallels to our own situation. We hope that the member's intellectual prowess will eventually lead to constructive proposals.

Student Council

This year we are lucky to have the president of the 1970-71 session of the Vt. Assoc. of Student Councils in the person of Tom Doty. This achievement speaks for itself. It shows the high quality of our P.H.S. Student Council relative to others in the state.

Band

And then came music ... directed by Mr. Janes. This year in addition to our own "normal" concerts, exchange concerts were effected for the band. This insured a varied pace to the entertainment as the baritones will testify.

If any activity exceeds the band in tempo and bravura, it is the chorus. The chorus luckily has hordes of beautiful voices to bewitch the unwary listener.

Varsity Basketball

BELOW, the "Dobers" hitting on twin hoops in the style that has become the trademark of the dynamic duo.

This is what it's all about: the work, the sweat, the pain, all for this single moment, but this moment is ours forever. Although it is not obvious on the surface, the joy is there - there when Coach accepts the game ball, and there as "the best" pose with their trophies. They wanted it and they worked for it; and once again the Phantoms have proven they are ... NUMBER 1.

VARSITY CHEERLEADING SQUAD

Junior Varsity

The 1969-70 campaign saw Coach Sam Ezzo lead his sophomore-studded JV team to an impressive 18-2 record, losing only to Arlington and West Rutland on the road by a total of two points.

Minnie Mike Morgan guns for two.

Junior High

Under the leadership of rookie mentor, Bob Spear, the Junior High Phantoms battled inconsistency and a definite lack of height to put together a successful and rewarding season.

CHEERLEADERS, L-R: L. Soulia, D. McCullough, B. Carlton, T. Rinehart, D. Lamphere, C. Anderson.

Skuba scoops!

Baseball

The "Orvis men" lost only two games this year against Otter Valley and Wallingford and went on to capture the MVL and State Championships for their second straight year.

Obviously a curve ...

BELOW, Sam's going for distance.

I think it's down there ...

Mark gets set.

wishes to thank all who made

Now that the summer's come and gone
I'll say goodbye.
Now that the winter's comin' on
I'll say goodbye.
I'm not the first man or the last
who had a thirst to leave the past.
So while the autumn rain is falling
I'll say goodbye.

For every star that falls to earth
a new one glows.
For every dream that fades away
a new one grows.

When things are not what they would seem you must keep following your dream.
So while my heart is still believing
I'll say bood-bye.

I'm just a man and nothing more ...

Because another road is calling
I'll say good-bye.

-- Rod McKuen
